

WESTERNEXCESLIOR.COM Upgraded – All Documents Updated

12/272005

For Immediate Release

Western Excelsior is committed to continuously improving the support of its distributor network by maintaining a document/information database that allows each distributor instant access to Western Excelsior material specifications, installation instructions and performance data. As the state of the practice evolves, new technologies emerge and new information becomes available, Western Excelsior updates its distributors, customers and specifiers though WESTERNEXCESLIOR.COM.

Documentation detailing the material specifications, installation instructions, general certificates of conformance and performance data have been made available for each product manufactured by Western Excelsior. Rapid Go™ and All Natural™ styles of each product are now supported by product specific documentation. Additionally, each document previously available has been updated with the latest information. Western Excelsior maintains the most comprehensive database of information regarding its RECPs possible. Visit WESTERNEXCESLIOR.COM to find the latest and most up to date information regarding Western Excelsior products.
